We love our coffee in New Jersey!

We love it so much so that when I asked where the best place to get a cup of joe was, we received so many responses that we had to break it up into "Central Jersey," the Jersey Shore, South Jersey.

And now without further ado, here's the best place to get a cup of coffee in North Jersey. Drink up! Better yet, treat yourself to a cookie as well.

Hands down L'Arte in Ramsey. From the moment you enter the shop the warm, friendly feeling along with the aromas ... truly worth the visit!

If you are in Bergen County it's L'Arte in Ramsey! Their Italian espresso is unique and really imported from Bologna in Italy. They also have a great Italian barista!

Damp, foggy and overcast...sounds like a day for a comforting cup of tea at L'Arte. If you would like to know more about tea at our cafe and in Italy check out Chef Andrea's "Tea in the land of espresso" blog!
